

Language Ambassadors

Profile

MARIE-ANGE WEST

Occupation: Project Manager/Translator

Company: Wolfestone Translation Ltd

Degree/University: Applied Language Studies (English and Spanish), Montpellier University

Languages spoken (native and learned): French and English

“Globalisation is not the only reason to learn a foreign language, curiosity and the desire to understand other cultures are good reasons too.”

Web:

www.wolfestone.co.uk

Email:

ambassadors@soton.ac.uk

Why did you decide to study languages?

“Because I found it fun and I wanted to be different.”

How has knowing another language had a significant role in your life and/or work?

“I was able to live in another country, meet my husband and find a great job.”

What advantages does being a linguist currently afford you?

“I am able to travel and communicate with people from different cultures.”