

Translation and Interpreting Conference

Career Paths and Opportunities

Wednesday 30 November, Aston University, Birmingham

12.30pm ARRIVAL AND REGISTRATION

12.45pm WELCOME MB261 Raquel Fernández Sánchez, Director, Routes into Languages West Midlands and Frank Austermuehl, Professor in Translation Studies, Aston University

1.00pm to 2.10pm EMPLOYER PANEL
MB261

Career Options in the British Translation Industry -
Geoffrey Bowden, Association of Translation
Companies

Working for a Translation Agency - Sophie Howe,
Comtec Translations Ltd

Working as a Translator for the European Union -
Stephen Turkington, European Commission
Representation in the UK

Working as a Freelance Interpreter - Kirsty
Heimerl-Moggan

4.30pm to 5.20pm STUDENT PANEL
MB261

Matthew Cooke - BSc, Modern Languages &
Translation Studies German & Spanish, Aston
University

Amy McKinley, MA Interpreting & Translating,
University of Bath

Anwen Roys, MA Applied Translation Studies,
University of Leeds

Helen Page, MA Interpreting and Translating,
University of Central Lancashire

2.15pm to 3.30pm ALUMNI PANEL
Room MB261

Working as a Project Manager - Leanne Herbert thewordhub limited

Flavia Rodrigues - Working as a Conference
Interpreter

Silvia Ferrero - Working as a Translator in the Games Localisation Industry

5.30pm to 6.30pm TASTER SESSIONS

Kirsty Heimerl-Moggan - Interpreting - MB227

Silvia Ferrero - Games Translation - MB229

Dave Pollard- Working with Machine Translation -
NX17

3.30pm to 4.30pm EXHIBITION, REFRESHMENTS
AND NETWORKING
MB161

Registration for this event is essential

<https://www.routesintolanguages.ac.uk/activities/west-midlands>

An Exhibition will be running in MB161 throughout the day, with representatives from Employers and HE Institutions available to talk to delegates.

