

Translating & Interpreting: Start Building Your Career Now

Hear from experts about translating and interpreting at the European Commission, the Olympic Games and conferences.

Don't miss out on this FREE event

2nd Annual Careers in Translating and Interpreting Event

Wednesday 20th April 2016, 1:30pm – 5:30pm

@

University of Liverpool

Rendall Building, Lecture Theatre 6
Bedford Street South,
Liverpool L69 7ZR

To attend this FREE event register online:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/event/22784421819/>

More information:

Nelson Becerra : nelson.becerra@liverpool.ac.uk

Jordi Sánchez: jords@liverpool.ac.uk

Department of Modern Languages and Cultures

Programme

1:30pm – 1:40pm	Arrival and Registration
1:40pm – 1:55pm	Welcome by Professor Lin Foxhall , Head of School of Histories, Languages & Cultures; and Careers talk by Diane Appleton , Deputy Head - Careers & Employability Service
1:55pm – 2:20pm	Myriam Salama-Carr 'Translation as a career' Director of the National Network for Translation
2:20pm – 2:45pm	Helen Campbell 'working as an conference interpreter in the EU' Director of the National Network for Interpreting
2:45pm – 3:10pm	Paul Kaye 'Translation and Interpreting in the European Union' Language officer at European Commission in London
3:10pm – 3:35pm	Kirsty Heimerl-Moggan 'Routes into Conference Interpreting' UCLAN
3:35pm – 3:45pm	Short break
3:45pm – 4:10pm	Graham Webb 'Experts in reconciling theory and practice' Freelance Translator
4:10pm – 4.35pm	Karl McLaughlin 'Interpreting at Olympic Games' Manchester Metropolitan University
4:35pm – 5.00pm	James Peel 'Freelance-a-lot: surviving and thriving through translation' Freelance Translator
5.00pm – 5.:10pm	Book Launch: 'Challenges and Opportunities in Public Service Interpreting' Théophile Munyangeyo, Marina Rabadán-Gomez and Graham Webb
5.10pm – 5:30pm	Q & A and Networking

2nd Annual Careers in Translating and Interpreting event

Wednesday, 20th April 2016, 1:30pm – 5:30pm

@livuni_language